AMERICAN AUXILIARY CRUISER SUNK.

[Copyright, 1898, The Associated Press.]

Cape Haytien, Hayti, June 3-3.15 P. M. The American fleet, according to advices received from Santiago de Cuba, the cable being under Spanis 1 control, opened fire again at o'clock this morning (Triday) on the forts and warships.

The cannonade was well sustained until 4 o'clock A. M. The U. S. auxiliary cruiser "Well Armed" attempted to force the passage into the l'arbon. The Spanish allowed the t miser to cross the first ine of torpedoss, but before she arrived at the second I've they discharged at her a torpedo, which broke a great hole through her side and caused her to sink most histantly, bow firet. . .

The name of the vessel is not known, nor is the number of victims reported. One officer, one engineer and six sailors were made prisoners by the Spaniards.
